Nash blowups of toric varieties in positive characteristic

Andrés Daniel Duarte-UNAM

A fundamental problem in algebraic geometry is the resolution of singularities. It consists in finding smooth models of singular algebraic varieties. In this talk we discuss this problem using Nash blowups in the particular case of toric varieties. We will see that in this context the problem becomes a combinatorial one.