The equations for double points and image of reflection mappings

Guillermo Penafort Sanchis (Universidade de Valência)

Computing the equations for double points and images of mappings is a very hard problem. In this talk we show explicit equations for a kind of mappings, called reflection mappings.